

Course title: Lecture of foreign professor	Course No: KSG/LECFP	Semester: winter (not annually)
Course type: Series of lectures, seminars and workshops	Hours/Week: 2	Number of credits: 6
Recommended for: Bachelor and Master level students

Lecturer (Academics):

Tomáš Drobík, Monika Šumberová

Status of the course in the study program:

Voluntary in all programmes

Course description:

The aim of this element of the course is to provide the maximum variety of new insights into Human Geography from many different angles. Students will be confronted with various topics of Geographical Science and will be encouraged to participate in discussions in groups and with lecturers. It will consist of a series of lectures by foreign professors. The precise course content is still under development.

Aims and objectives of the course:

To get to know world-level knowledge on human geography.

To develop ability to discuss on geographical phenomena at the very advanced level.

Teaching method:

Lectures, seminars and workshops – depend on the professor

Prerequisite:

Human geography, political geography

Teaching aids & literature:

Will be specified

Examination method:

Written test

Requirements for examination:

Read over the readings, regular and active participation in classes

Registration for examination:

Electronic registration